Flags Over Summerlin

JULY 1 THROUGH 5

The stars and stripes will fly high over Summerlin this Fourth of July! To honor our country and community, more than 500 American flags will be displayed throughout Summerlin as part of Flags Over Summerlin, a community-wide tribute to America and a celebration of its 246th birthday.

From July 1 through 5, Flags Over Summerlin will provide a stirring way to show gratitude for our country, invoke a sense of comfort and pride and honor all those who have served.

These patriotic arrangements can be found at parks throughout the entire Summerlin Community.

COMMUNITY NEWS

Always Leaving Things Better Than You Found Them

As I have shared in the past, it requires a considerable amount of time, energy and membership fees to maintain and preserve the appearance of our Summerlin community common areas. In general, these common areas include streetscapes, major entryways, Summerlin monuments, village signage, neighborhood entry signage, landscape treatments, neighborhood mini-parks and 24 regional Summerlin Council parks. When you sum up all of the areas, the Summerlin master community associations and Council maintain and oversee well over 1,125 acres of open space with more amenities on the way!

The streetscape common areas contain a variety of components and amenities including landscape, sidewalks and bike paths, street furniture, walls, site lighting, pedestrian access gates and highly sophisticated irrigation systems.

Council parks presently include community centers, seasonal swimming pools and play fountains, multiple lighted ball fields and soccer fields, lighted tennis and pickleball facilities, lighted basketball courts, restroom facilities, and numerous tot equipment locations and picnic areas.

My purpose in briefly outlining these areas is twofold. First, I hope it helps to remind you of the vast amenities for which your membership fees are used. Regular maintenance, utility services, and care and upkeep of these common elements is an expensive, but wise investment in your community. Each of us as members share in the financial obligation, commitment and investment to keep our common areas well maintained.

It is also important that we value and respect our ownership relationship with these community common areas. They are in essence an extension of our own yards and are a great source of enjoyment and pride to our entire membership. Community management personnel and various maintenance subcontractors work diligently with association and Council funds to help keep our common areas looking good...not just because they are paid to, but also because of the pride they take in being part of the high standards of Summerlin.

We as residents also play a critical role in this effort. Simply put, our own practices with respect to picking up after ourselves, our kids, and our pets can have a profound effect on the daily appearance of the community. Further, reminding our children that mischievous damage done to plants, walls, gates, restrooms, lighting and other components adds up to avoidable costly repairs.

It is important to remember that we are all in this together, sharing and caring for our amenities. After all, they belong to each of us. Have a happy and safe 4th of July! GNMAWYA ♥

COMMUNITY CONNECTION

Las Vegas Metro Police Department

Sorry, Occupied!

The Emptyest House is One of the Easiest - Burglars are always looking for an easy house to hit. One strategy they use to find out which houses are the easiest at a given time is to see if the home is occupied. If the owners are away, that gives them more time to rummage around your home and search for your valuables. So, at all times, we want to create a sense of occupancy within our homes.

Always Respond to Knocks or Rings at the Door - The suspect will often claim to be offering some sort of contract service or ask to use the restroom as an excuse for them knocking. Never open the door for someone you don't know! Instead, advise them that you're not interested in whatever they're offering and send them on their way.

But What If I'm Not Home? - I highly recommend looking into installing one of the many available doorbell cameras. These are great because if someone is ringing your doorbell, you can still answer the door even if you're away to give that sense of occupancy. There are also plenty of products on the market that can do things such as turn your tv on at random intervals to convey the illusion of occupancy as well. Another great product are lights you can install at the front of your house that turn on when it gets dark and turn off when it's bright out.

By utilizing just a few of these tips, we can make our homes look far less appealing to criminals and keep our homes safer. If you're interested in having a site survey at your home, please send an email to M14969B@lvmpd.com to discuss home security further! ★

Summer Events Mean Summer Fun At Downtown Summerlin®

As summer heats up, so does the fun at Downtown Summerlin®, the dynamic urban center of the Summerlin® master planned community. Home to 125-plus retailers, restaurants, entertainment and sports venues, Downtown Summerlin is a hot spot for family fun all summer long.

“It might be hot outside, but the fun never stops at Downtown Summerlin,” said Danielle Bisterfeldt, SVP, Marketing and Consumer Experience, Summerlin. “The Lawn continues to be a draw for fitness events, the always popular Farmers Market continues every Saturday morning under the shaded pavilion, and several restaurants offer shaded and misted outdoor dining— along with our evening concerts and baseball games that keep the fun going after the sun goes down.”

The Summerlin Sounds summer concert series kicked off June 8 and runs every Wednesday through July 13. Weekly festivities take place on The Lawn at Downtown Summerlin, and all concerts are free and open to the public. The first performance takes the stage at 5:30 p.m. with an acoustic act, followed by the first band set at 7 p.m. and a second set at 8:30 p.m. Families are encouraged to bring blankets and enjoy an evening outdoors. A sampling of some of the notable artists scheduled to perform include Empire Records with Cam Calloway, Moonshiners with Jase Naron, Velvet Elvis with Richard Mann, Million Dollar Band with Ilan Dvir-Djerassi, Lyte Bryte Band with Phil Stendek, and Jeremy Cornwell with Adena Sampson. Space is limited and based on a first-come first-served basis. Visit summerlin.com for details.

On Tuesdays through September 27 at 7:30 p.m., Downtown Summerlin hosts Fitness on The Lawn presented by Sikara MedSpa in partnership with TruFusion Summerlin, Pure Barre, lululemon, Fit4Mom and Fabletics! Classes are free and all levels are welcome. The weekly rotation includes yoga, fitness and high intensity interval training options. Bring your mat, towel and water to end the day outside, finding your center while enjoying an epic Las Vegas sunset – Summerlin-style. For a complete schedule, visit summerlin.com.

home games throughout the season. Post-game fireworks add to the fun and happen on July 2 and 3, August 5 and September 23. Fans can enjoy a robust selection of family-favorite concessions, including favorites from BBQ Mexicana, Walking Taco Stand, The Grill on 1st and 3rd, Flight Deck Burger, Chill Out, Frose and Aviator Ale— to name a few. For game schedule and tickets, visit lasvegasballpark.com.

Also at Las Vegas Ballpark is the third annual Battle for Vegas presented by Dollar Loan Center and hosted by Reilly Smith on Monday, July 18 at 7:30 p.m. Fans will get the chance to watch their favorite professional athletes “battle” it out for Las Vegas’ ultimate bragging rights, all for a good cause. The evening includes post-game fireworks, a home run derby, a military flyover and more. One team is led by Reilly Smith of the Vegas Golden Knights and his teammates, and the other team is led by Josh Jacobs of the Las Vegas Raiders and includes other Raiders players and friends. Tickets for the Battle for Vegas Charity Softball Game begin at $35. All tickets can be purchased online at battleforvegas.com, ticketmaster.com/event/ or at the Las Vegas Ballpark ticket office. ★
